

MR. SHELDON'S METHOD OF COMBATING WRONGS.

The Capital Denounces Tax Dodgers of Topeka, but Uses No Names.

Preacher-Editor Gives His Reasons for This Course and His Idea of Conducting "Crusades"—His Publication a Disappointment as a Newspaper.

The Republic feels that since would not be well applied in continuing a complete presentation of Mr. Sheldon's newspaper experiment at Topeka. Every reader perceives that Mr. Sheldon has been unable to lead a revolution in journalism. He has merely abandoned journalism for what is, under the operation of inevitable laws, confined to the field of periodical miscellany. That his miscellany is selected because it has a moral and religious tone does not affect the fact. There are weekly and monthly papers which already accomplish all that he undertakes. His venture was not a newspaper the first day and it does not yet show a sign of meeting a public want. The Republic will give every day the main features of Mr. Sheldon's work. But it is not justified in reporting more fully than that an experiment which is a universally pronounced failure as far as it professes to be a newspaper.

"TAX DODGERS" STORY STIRS TOPEKA.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 15.—When the Reverend Mr. Sheldon called at press headquarters this morning at 9:30 to meet and shake hands with the newspaper correspondents, he was the most cheerful man of the lot. He retired at the Capital Hotel at 3 o'clock after the Capital press was started, and at 8 o'clock he was leaving the hotel on his bicycle for a visit with his wife and boy, at his home on near Washington, (two miles away). He said he was feeling well, but was very busy and could only spend a moment with "his brethren of the press."

In his little talk this morning, he told the newspaper correspondents that he would introduce new features in the Capital every week if he were to conduct the paper regularly. He would work out his idea by filling the first page with matter that appealed to the human heart, and would continue to put articles on that page which, in his judgment, would be of most vital importance to the people. His ideal in a Christian daily newspaper is a staff of assistants in full sympathy with him. He would employ only Christian men. They would not use tobacco or whiskey.

Mr. Sheldon's first plan for making the paper better is to begin in training the children for Christian, temperate and useful lives. He believes the kindergarten is the place to lay the foundation for good habits, morals and correct thinking. In his talk to-day he said he doubted the wisdom of publishing the names of those who are illegally selling liquor in Topeka. He would build a public sentiment that would root these men of business.

"Commence with the child," he said, "and give it proper training, and you will not have to throw legal actions around it in after life."

In brief, this is the Reverend Mr. Sheldon's idea: "It is cheaper to prevent than to punish. It is more Christian, more wise, more humane."

"Save the child to-day and you have saved the nation tomorrow. Let us make it as easy as possible for the child to do right, and as hard as possible for it to do wrong."

"Tax Dodgers"—Cartoon.
A local article, written by George H. Harrison, on "Tax Dodging," in this morning's Capital, has greatly stirred Topeka. It points out some of the men of the town, evade the payment of their tax portion of personal taxes. It is accompanied by an original cartoon, by Myron A. Waterman, a brother-in-law of Mr. Sheldon. The cartoon shows a Topeka banker's office, the banker presenting to the Assessor over the counter of his bank a statement of his personal property. The banker says "a quibble" and he shows by the statement that he has bonds, no stocks, no notes, no mortgages, no judgments, nothing, in fact, for taxation. The cartoon also shows the interior of the banker's office, and there are drawers full of all these instruments, including railroad stocks and banknotes showing big dividends, which the banker has before the first day of March, when the assessment is commenced. In a corner is a big safe, filled with bags of money, bearing this inscription:

"This safe is warranted to keep out the Assessor."

The golden rule is checked into the cashbook, and the blue papers in the waste basket. George H. Harrison, the author of the "Tax Dodger" article, asked Mr. Sheldon if he could use the names of the tax dodgers for purposes of comparison in the preparation of the story, but this request was refused.

At the daily conference to-day with newspaper correspondents, Mr. Sheldon asked why he did not publish the names, and replied:

"Because the names are legion. This city is full of that class of people, and I do not think it right to single out a half dozen sinners and give their names. If I could have given the entire list, I might do so, but that would be impossible. I do not know that I would print them anyway. I am looking into the future and beyond to remedy the evil and to persuade people to be more honest in the matter of assessment."

Asked if he holds more good than evil, he answered by creating public sentiment against places of evil, and by attacking by destroying the business and naming the guilty parties. Mr. Sheldon said: "That is my idea. I do not think it right to print the names of evil-doers if I were running a paper permanently, but I do not deem it best, as I am running one for a week only."

However, Harrison's comparisons are so graphic that the average Topekan can pick out men whom they think may be meant. The story is preceded by this editorial statement from the Reverend Mr. Sheldon:

"Lying is the only word to use, and there are thousands of men and women doing it. Church members, respectable citizens, men and women who stand high in social circles, 'lie about their taxes. These are facts. Apply the moral for yourselves. It is not a matter of life and death, but it is a matter of principle."

Here is a paragraph from the story of the "Tax Dodger" which has set Topeka tongues to wagging:

"One of the most prominent and influential officials of the Santa Fe Railroad, whose name I recently read in an article quoted by a New York publication from a California paper as a very poor boy, and had worked up to a position of wealth and honor in a way that all boys should emulate—that man, who has at least kept his post, paid taxes last year on $50 of personal property, a baggageman on the same road paid $50."

"Several rich men," says the article, "who live in great houses, the asphalt paving in the neighborhood of the large churches paid respectively on the following amounts: Two hundred and thirty dollars, $20, $25, $30, $35, $40, $45, $50, $55, $60, $65, $70, $75, $80, $85, $90, $95, $100, $105, $110, $115, $120, $125, $130, $135, $140, $145, $150, $155, $160,
